Formal dedication ceremonies for the University of Dayton's new School of Business Administration building - MIRIAM HALL - will be held Tuesday, March 29, 1966, beginning at 4:00 p.m.

The Most Reverend Karl J. Alter, Archbishop of Cincinnati, will celebrate a Mass of Dedication in the University Chapel at 4:00 p.m. The Mass will be followed by the Blessing of the new building at 5:30 p.m.

A reception and dinner beginning at 6:00 p.m. will conclude the ceremonies.

Miriam Hall, an impressive nine-story structure of brick, glass and steel is named in honor of Miss Miriam Rosenthal, friend and benefactor of UD and an outstanding community leader until her death on April 3, 1965.

Miss Rosenthal was the guiding hand in two major building fund campaigns which raised the money for the construction of Wohlleben and Sherman halls, the John F. Kennedy Memorial Union and Miriam hall on the UD Campus.
